NEW REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

Effective Spring 2010
Effective Spring 2010, students with 30 or more earned hours and an overall GPA of less than 2.25 will be required to meet with their academic advisor before they will be allowed to early register for classes for the Fall 2010 Semester.
To ensure that advising holds are released in a timely fashion, it is recommended that these students contact and meet with their academic advisor before the Wednesday prior to internet registration for a fall or spring semester.
Currently enrolled, returning, and transfer students with 30 or more hours and an overall GPA of less than 2.25 will not be allowed to early register by the Internet until they are advised.
These students must contact (in person, via email, or telephone) and meet with their academic advisor before Wednesday, March 17, 2010, in order to be advised and have the academic advising hold released prior to internet registration.
Currently enrolled, returning, and transfer students with 30 or more hours and an overall GPA of more than 2.25 may register by the Internet.
