Early Registration Cancellation for a Previous Balance of more than $2000:
A student who has early registered and owes a financial balance of more than $2,000 from a previous semester must pay the previous balance to $2,000 or less in order to attend classes. If a student has a financial balance of more than $2,000 that is not paid to $2,000 or less, early registration will be cancelled prior to the first day of classes (11:30 a.m., May 17, 2013).

Registration with a Previous Balance more than $2,000:
A student who has early registered or who wants to register but owes a financial balance of more than $2,000 from a previous semester and who, because of extenuating circumstances that can be documented, is unable to pay the previous balance to $2,000 or less prior to the first day of classes, may appeal early registration cancellation or to register owing a previous balance of more than $2,000 to an appeal committee. Within the appeal documentation, the appellant must demonstrate the ability to pay the previous balance to $2,000 or less by the last day of the Summer semester. Additionally, Installment Plan, Late Registration, and Late Payment Charges will be assessed and Collection Placement and Credit Bureau Reporting submitted in accordance with University policy.

Early Registration or Regular Registration with a Previous Balance of $2,000 or Less:

However, the student must maintain an account balance of $2,000 or less by the last day of the current semester to avoid future term early registration cancellation or to register owing a previous balance of more than $2,000 to an appeal committee. Within the appeal documentation, the appellant must demonstrate the ability to pay the previous balance to $2,000 or less by the last day of the Summer semester. Additionally, Installment Plan, Late Registration, and Late Payment Charges will be assessed and Collection Placement and Credit Bureau Reporting submitted in accordance with University policy.
